Los Angeles - The City of Angels always hovers between dream and reality. Where else can you enjoy a Thai taco or munch on a kosher burrito? Or travel from downtown's high rises to the beaches of Malibu, shopping in Beverly Hills along the way? San Francisco, arguably the most romantic and cosmopolitan city in the United States. San Francisco has it all: a colorful history, superb restaurants, sophisticated museums, world-class shopping, and that elusive air of romance and abandon that's part of the tang of the city.

San Francisco - San Francisco, perhaps more than any other city in the United States, encapsulates the country's history as a melting pot. From the city's inception as a Mexican mission through the Summer of Love, and into its current standing as a hub of innovation, San Francisco's unique neighborhoods have been home to some of the most prominent cultural movements in the nation's history. The romantic notions of a San Francisco trip continue to draw visitors from all over the globe. By exploring the San Francisco districts, you can get a sense about what life in the city is really like.

Astoria offers a rich history for your exploration. one can see dozens of exciting attractions including Fort Stevens State Park, Fort Astoria, Heritage and Maritime Museums. Astoria offers other fun discoveries, such as historic Victorian homes and the beautiful 4.1 mile-long Astoria Bridge. Victoria exudes old-world charm and fragrant and colorful flowers are everywhere. The harbors, especially Inner Harbour, are dotted with pleasure craft, ferries and float-planes The city is renowned for its beautiful gardens, charming houses and very British feel. Vancouver is a cosmopolitan place with a European feel and a personality all its own. It's a community with a rich ethnic mix - including the second-largest Chinatown in North America - and stunningly beautiful parks.

Victoria - Although it's a port city, Victoria is not as industrially oriented as Vancouver. The harbors, especially Inner Harbour, are dotted with pleasure craft, ferries and float-planes The city is renowned for its beautiful gardens, charming houses and very British feel.

Vancouver - Full of green spaces, European charm and rich diversity, Vancouver is one of the most unique cities in North America. Canada's third largest city feels like a metropolis combined with a charming nature-loving small town. Explore one of Vancouver's many parks, including a rain-forest, immerse yourself in North America's second largest Chinatown or marvel at majestic sea life at the Vancouver Aquarium.
