

Dancers At Sea

Invites you on a fabulous 14 night voyage from Southampton. England, through beautiful ports in the Baltic, including an overnight port call in St. Petersburg, aboard the gorgeous Queen Victoria.

Visit cities that date back centuries. Fill your mind with imaginings of kings and queens parading through the streets in horse drawn carriages. Walk through the markets of the middle ages where farmers would barter their goods. The shops where blacksmiths would clang away at their anvils making armor and weaponry.

And at night...

Dance in the most magnificent ballroom at sea with the best Dancers at Sea!

Departing July 23, 2023

Hamburg, Germany

Seventy miles from the sea, on the Elbe River in northern Germany, Hamburg is the second largest port city in Europe and one of Germany's most cosmopolitan, dynamic and fascinating destinations.

Aarhus, Denmark

The friendly Viking city of Aarhus is brimming with museums, parks and entertainment venues. Currently enjoying an architectural renaissance, this tiny city was the 2017 European Capital of Culture.

St. Petersburg, Russia

Russia's great imperial city, St. Petersburg, never fails to leave lasting impressions. This is a wonderful opportunity to discover the jewel in the Tsarist crown, still sparkling as brightly as ever.

Helsinki, Finland

Sail into Helsinki, past the island fortress of Suomenlinna, to find a clean and bustling capital city of neo-classical architecture. Take in the fabulous Senate Square and copper dome of Rock Church.

Skagen, Denmark

The red and yellow clapboard houses of Skagen occupy a substantial spit of sand at Denmark's most northerly reaches. Many people visit Grenen, the scenic end point of the dunes where two beaches meet. The light in the area has attracted and inspired many artists and craftsmen.
