Departing October 27, 2026

Grand Turk, Turks and Caicos Islands

Grand Turk is the largest of the Turks Islands and is home to historic sites, stunning beaches and colorful marine life. Discover the island's British and Bermuda roots while touring Cockburn Town where you can learn about the island's old sea salt industry and see the popular Grand Turk Lighthouse – the only lighthouse in the Turks and Caicos. Enjoy a scenic boat ride to nearby Gibbs Cay and splash around with the wild stingrays that like to gather in the pristine calm waters surrounding the island.

Willemstad, Curacao

Willemstad is the capital city of Curaçao, a Dutch Caribbean island. It's known for its beautiful old town center, with pastel-colored colonial architecture reflecting its Dutch influence. The city's waterfront is a UNESCO World Heritage site and a photographer's dream!

Kralendijk, Bonaire, St Eustatius and Saba

Bonaire's beauty extends on land, with a coral-tinted beach to Kralendijk's south. Pink is a theme here, with pastel-pink sands and thousands of bright pink flamingos living on the island. Kralendijk is the capital of Bonaire, known for diving and its colorful town. Saba is the smallest island and the most mountainous, dominated by the extinct volcano Mt. Scenery, and offers challenging hikes and a breathtaking view.

Oranjestad, Aruba

As the main passenger port of Aruba, Oranjestad is where your feet will first meet the vibrant streets of this Caribbean Island. Admire the beautiful skyline and take in the rows of candy colored buildings. As you explore this unique capital city, you'll encounter an array of bustling restaurants, art galleries, museums, historical sites, and of course, white sandy beaches.
