Grand Cayman's most popular tourist attraction is Stingray City. This sandbar, a few minutes off the shore by boat, is an opportunity to pet and interact with hundreds of placid stingrays in waist-deep water.

Montego Bay, Jamaica

This Jamaican gem is an intoxicating blend of blue horizons, heady rum punches and fiery jerk flavors. Savor the vision of white sand, swaying palms and water that shimmers with gin-like clarity.

Roatan, Honduras

The largest of the Bay Islands of Honduras, Roatan's pristine white sand beaches, warm local hospitality, and warm Caribbean climate attract sunseekers and beach lovers from around the world. Home to the world's second largest barrier reef, there's no better way to visit the tropical paradise of Roatan.

Costa Maya, Mexico

Discover the hidden gems of the Mayan civilization at Kohunlich and Chacchoben, where ancient ruins and vibrant jungles await. Relax at Mahahual's beach clubs or explore Bacalar's stunning lake. Dive into the Meso-American Barrier Reef's wonders or enjoy a fishing adventure along the Caribbean Coast. Adventure and tranquility await!

Cozumel, Mexico

Cozumel, a picturesque island off Mexico's east coast, offers a blend of Maya culture, colonial architecture, and natural beauty. Visitors can explore ancient ruins like El Caracol and San Gervasio, relax on idyllic beaches, and learn about pearl farming and chocolate production.
