San Juan

San Juan - Puerto Rico welcomes you with lovely panoramic views of the old and new city of San Juan. In Old Town you'll see historic landmarks built by the Spaniards between 1539 and 1771. Take photos and walk along the grounds of the oldest Spanish fort in the New World - Fort San Felipe del Morro - built in 1539 to guard the entrance and defend the harbor of San Juan Bay. See the Condado District, famous for its striking beaches, upscale hotels and casinos.

St. Maarten

Perched on a narrow strip of land between the crystal clear Caribbean Sea and the Great Salt Pond, the Caribbean gem of St. Maarten is a fabulous setting for a wide array of things to see and experience. Stroll along the inland salt lake, or head for the gorgeous city beach. Search the quaint clothes boutiques, or browse the stores for duty-free bargains. The choice is yours. With its striking white churches amongst groves of swaying coconut trees, St. Maarten is one of the Caribbean's most idyllic and unspoiled locations.

St Thomas

An island of towering cliffs and mangrove swamps. It is also the home to heart-shaped Magens Bay, which is undoubtedly one of the most pristine and beautiful of all the Caribbean beaches.

Antigua

The largest of the British Leeward Islands, Antigua boasts one of the Caribbean's most spectacular coastlines with secluded coves and sun drenched beaches. The island's rolling hills are dotted with stone sugar mills, relics from the bygone era when sugar was king.

Barbados

Barbados, where rich and fertile tropical fields meet a glistening, azure sea. The soft pastels of old chattel houses blend with the vibrant reds, oranges, and greens of roadside fruit stands. Barbados exudes a charm all its own. Perhaps it is due to Bajan culture, that celebrated blend of English tradition and the African heritage brought to the island by slaves imported to work the sugar plantations.
